1st Grade RP1
Name	Language Arts	Demonstrates concepts of print	Demonstrates phonemic awareness	Decodes consonants, consonant blends, and long- and short-vowel sounds	Reads common, irregular sight words	Classifies grade-level-appropriate categories of words	Reads grade-level text fluently	Uses structural features of informational text	Uses a variety of strategies to comprehend and analyze grade-level text	Identifies, describes and retells theme, plot, setting and characters from narrative text	Selects a focus when writing	Uses descriptive words when writing	Prints legibly and spaces letters, words and sentences appropriately	Writes brief narratives	Writes brief descriptions	Writes in complete sentences	Uses grade-level-appropriate capitalization and punctuation	Spells grade-level words correctly in written work
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

1st Grade RP1
Name	Mathematics	Counts, reads, writes, orders numbers to 100	Counts and groups objects in ones and tens	Identifies coins and shows different combinations that equal the same value	Knows addition facts to 20	Knows subtraction facts to 20	Uses inverse relationship between addition and subtraction to solve problems	Skip counts by 2s, 5s, and 10s to	Adds two-digit numbers	Adds three one-digit numbers	Writes, solves and models number sentences with addition and subtraction	Creates story problems to represent given number sentences	Uses non-standard units to measure and compare objects	Tells time to the half-hour and understands relationship of time	Classifies and describes common geometric figures by attribute	Collects, organizes and compares data on simple graphs and charts	Describes, extends and explains ways to get to next element in repeating pattern	Uses strategies, skills and concepts to approach, solve and explain problems
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

1st Grade RP1
Name	Science	Collects, organizes, and communicates scientific information	Demonstrates an understanding of Physical Science	Demonstrates an understanding of Life Science	Demonstrates an understanding of Earth Science	Social Studies	Describes citizenship and American symbols and traditions	Uses and constructs simple maps and globes	Compares and contrasts everyday life in different times and places	Describes the similarities and differences of people in our community	Physical Ed and Fine Arts	Participates fully in PE activities	Displays good sportsmanship	Participates fully in visual arts	Participates fully in music
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

1st Grade RP1
Name	Work Habits and Cooperation	Listens attentively	Follows oral instructions	Expresses ideas and concepts clearly	Participates in classroom discussions	Delivers oral presentations	Treats peers and adults with respect	Solves problems appropriately	Follows school and class rules	Works cooperatively with others	Accepts responsibility	Regularly reads a variety of genres	Works independently	Maintains and organizes school materials	Completes class work in a timely manner	Produces neat and careful work	Completes and returns homework on time
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20																	