Edison Gr. 4 Page 3

Edison Grade 4 Page 3 Form to Pencil-in Grades

Name	Spanish Language Arts	Demonstrates an understanding of grade-level vocabulary and word concepts	Reads grade-level text fluently	Uses structural features of informational text	Uses a variety of strategies to comprehend and analyze grade-level text	Identifies structural differences in a variety of fictional forms, such as fables, myths, and legends	Identifies main events of plot, their causes and influences on future actions	Identifies character traits and motivation	Compares and contrasts tales from different cultures	Identifies figurative language in literary works	Uses the writing process to write focused, multi-paragraph compositions	Selects a focus and organizational structure appropriate to writing genre and audience	Writes narratives	Writes responses to literature	Writes information reports	Writes summaries of reading selections	Combines short, related sentences to form complex sentences	Uses grade-level-appropriate grammar	Uses grade-level-appropriate capitalization and punctuation	Spells grade-level words correctly in written work	Listening and Speaking in Spanish	Demonstrates listening comprehension	Is acquiring grade-level-appropriate vocabulary, syntax and grammar
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32																							