- What a difference a year makes!
 - Only 14 months ago we were facing deep cuts if Proposition 30 didn't pass
- Governor Jerry Brown is proposing the greatest increase in per-student average funding since 2000-01
- He takes a wrecking ball to the "wall of debt" by buying down the remaining K-14 deferrals
- The Proposition 98 entitlement skyrockets even while the California economy as a whole only improves at a moderate rate
- The increase in Proposition 98 creates a window of opportunity unlike any we have had before
- To protect public education during the eventual downturns, the Governor proposes two rainy day funds: one for education and one for the rest of the State Budget
- The Governor is proposing a continuous appropriation for the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF)

Governor's Proposals for the 2014-15 State Budget and K-12 Education

● What the Budget does not address:

- No proposal for a statewide school facilities bond
- No new funding to address the unfunded liability in the California State Teachers' Retirement Systems fund
- No new funding to address special education shortfalls
- No new funding for early childhood education
- No payments on the prior-year state mandate credit card

- $61.6 billion in K-14 Proposition 98 funds are available for 2014-15
- This is a $6.3 billion increase – 11.4% over the 2013-14 budgeted level
 - On average, $751 per average daily attendance (ADA) ongoing is K-12 education's share
- In addition, $3.3 billion more is provided in one-time funding from prior years
 - $1.8 billion from 2012-13
 - $1.5 billion from 2013-14

Governor's Proposals for the 2014-15 State Budget and K-12 Education

- $5.5 billion of one-time and ongoing Proposition 98 to fully eliminate interyear K-12 apportionment deferrals in 2014-15
- $4.472 billion in additional funding for school districts and charter schools to continue implementation of the LCFF
- $316.5 million to support Proposition 39 energy efficiency projects
- $33.3 million to fund a 0.86% statutory cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) for categorical programs that remain outside of the LCFF
- $188.1 million for the Emergency Repair Program from one-time Proposition 98 funds

Governor's Proposals for the 2014-15 State Budget and K-12 Education

- The Governor is proposing a constitutional amendment to make major changes to the state's "Rainy Day Fund," which was established in 2004 through Proposition 58
- The amendments are intended to address revenue volatility stemming from the capital gains tax
- The specific provisions include:
 - Establishing a Proposition 98 reserve in addition to the existing Rainy Day Fund
 - Requiring contributions to these reserves when capital gains revenues exceed 6.5% of General Fund tax revenues
 - Establishing a maximum size for the Rainy Day Fund of 10% of revenues, as opposed to the 5% maximum of Proposition 58
 - Limiting withdrawals to 50% of the balance in the first year of a recession

- Budget proposes $4.5 billion for continued implementation of the LCFF
- New funding is estimated to close the gap between 2013-14 funding levels and LCFF full implementation targets by 28.05%
- Combined with elimination of 11.78% of the gap in 2013-14, the new formula would be over one-third of the way toward implementation in the first two years
- 2014-15 LCFF growth provides an average increase in per-pupil funding of 10.9%, or $751 per ADA (approx. $590 for SMMUSD)
 - Individual local educational agency experiences will vary

LCFF – A Quick Review

7

© 2014 School Services of California, Inc.

- The LCFF makes fundamental changes to how we allocate state Proposition 98 revenues to schools
- At full implementation, the LCFF will fund every student at the same base rate
- The LCFF provides two weighting factors applied against the LCFF base grant
 - 20% on behalf of each eligible student
 - An additional 50% for the eligible students exceeding 55% of total enrollment
- Each school district receives at least as much state aid in future fiscal years as the district received in 2012-13
