Sofia Cedillo Named Assistant Principal of McKinley Elementary School

The Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District has announced the promotion of Sofia Cedillo to half-time McKinley assistant principal, effective immediately. The SMMUSD Board of Education approved the reassignment at the August 10, 2016 regular board meeting. Cedillo will also be a half-time reading teacher at Edison Language Academy.

Cedillo has been the elementary summer administrative intern overseeing summer school the past two summers: Franklin in 2015 and Roosevelt in 2016. During the school year she has served as a literacy coach at SMASH, Rogers and Roosevelt from 2014 to 2016.

Cedillo began her teaching career in SMMUSD in 2005 and previously taught Kindergarten and first grade at Will Rogers Learning Community.

Cedillo earned a Bachelor of Arts in sociology from the University of California at Santa Barbara, a Masters of Art in education from University of California at Davis and has attended the Institute of School Leadership and Administration at Loyola Marymount University.

Cedillo received the UC Davis School of Education Distinguished Alumni Rising Star Award in 2011.

“I am ecstatic about joining two amazing teams!” Cedillo said. “I am greatly looking forward to learning more about the families and students, so that I can meet their needs and help these exemplary learning communities continue to thrive.”

Cedillo is a National Board Certified Teacher and fluent in Spanish.
