I The meeting started at 8:35am. Spanish interpretation was made available. All notifications were made available in Spanish and English, and in Russian for some portions.

II MEETING MINUTES: First meeting of the 2022-2023 school year. No previous minutes were shared.

III DELAC Report: (The following is a brief summary of the DELAC report) - The DELAC representative, Stefanie Serrato, gave a brief report about the first DELAC meeting, 10/3/2022. She spoke of the usefulness of DELAC, and encouraged other ELAC members to participate.

IV ELAC Mandated Topic(s): Explained the need for ELAC. Presented the SMMUSD ELAC/DELAC training powerpoint. Elections were held. All parents in attendance became ELAC members (see names above). A member asked to become the ELAC president, and all members agreed – Kornel Shukhat. A member asked to become the DELAC alternate, and all members agreed – Eran Groner. Several members agreed to help with notetaking until a formal secretary is elected, if that becomes the case.

V ELAC Discussion /Recommendation: Elections and formation of a formal ELAC.

VI Other presentation(s): Judy Yuan, instructional coach, presented Roosevelt support of EL students. The home language survey and ELPAC were explained. School demographics were shared.

VII Announcements: (Summary): Conference experience will be addressed during the November ELAC meeting.

VIII Open Forum Conversation:

Questions from parents regarding newcomers who speak little English testing and support; discussion regarding programs used for instruction; request to observe/understand what a small group looks like; request for additional summer programs for ELs; understanding who to speak with regarding progress in EL groups; Wondering how to get support when outreach to non-Roosevelt SMMUSD personnel does not receive response.

The meeting was adjourned at: 10:00am
