Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District

Rights under Title IX

Title IX is a federal law that was passed in 1972 to ensure that male and female students and employees in educational settings are treated equally and fairly. It protects against discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment. In addition, Title IX protects transgender students and students who do not conform to gender stereotypes. State law also prohibits discrimination based on gender (sex), gender expression, gender identity and sexual orientation. The preamble to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states that:

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

Title IX Coordinator

The individual named below is the Title IX Coordinator for the Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District. He is responsible for coordinating the investigating all Title IX complaints. Additionally, he is responsible for monitoring outcomes, identify and addressing patterns, and assessing the effects on campus climates resulting from discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment.

Dr. Mark O. Kelly Assistant Superintendent, Human Resources 1651 16th Street Santa Monica, CA 90404 mkelly@smmusd.org 310-450-8338, extension 70220

Filing a Title IX Complaint

A complaint alleging unlawful discrimination in violation of Title IX shall be submitted in writing according to Board of Education Policy and Administrative Regulation 1312.1 Uniform Complaint Procedures. District staff shall assist any person who needs assistance to put his/her complaint in writing.

Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District Uniform Complaint Procedures and Form (BP 1312.3 and AR 1312.3)

The Board of Education recognizes that the district has the primary responsibility to ensure compliance with applicable state and federal laws and regulations governing educational programs. The district shall investigate and seek to resolve any complaints alleging failure to comply with such laws and/or alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying in accordance with the uniform complaint procedures.

The district shall use the uniform complaint procedures to resolve any complaint alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying in district programs and activities based on actual or perceived characteristics of race or ethnicity, color, ancestry, nationality, national origin, ethnic group identification, age, religion, marital or parental status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, or genetic information, or any other characteristic identified in Education Code 200 or 220, Penal Code 422.55, or Government Code 11135, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

Additionally, uniform complaint procedures shall also be used to address any complaint alleging the district's failure to comply with the prohibition against requiring students to pay fees, deposits, or other charges for participation in educational activities, the requirements for the development and adoption of a school safety plan, and state and/or federal laws in adult education programs, consolidated categorical aid programs, migrant education, career technical and technical education and training programs, child care and development programs, child nutrition programs, and special education programs.

A complaint concerning unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying may be filed only by a person who alleges that he/she personally suffered unlawful discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying or by a person who believes that an individual or any specific class of individuals has been subjected to it. The complaint shall be initiated no later than six months from the date when the alleged discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying occurred, or six months from the date when the complainant first obtained knowledge of the facts of the alleged discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying. However, upon written request by the complainant, the Superintendent or designee may extend the filing period for up to 90 calendar days. (5 CCR 4630)

The following process applies only to those complaints meeting the criteria under uniform complaint procedures, described above:

- Informal resolution of complaints at the site level is encouraged whenever possible.
- Complaints made under these procedures shall be presented to the compliance officer who shall maintain a log of complaints received, providing each with a code number and a date stamp.
- Within three days of receiving the complaint, the compliance offer may informally discuss with the complainant the possibility of using mediation.
- Within 10 calendar days of receiving the compliant, the compliance officer shall provide the complainant and/or his/her representative an opportunity to present the complaint and any evidence, or information leading to evidence, to support the allegation in the complaint.

- If the complainant refuses mediation or if the mediation process does not solve the problem, the compliance officer shall proceed with his/her investigation of the complaint.
- Within 60 days of receiving the complaint, the compliance officer shall prepare and send to the complainant a written report of the district's investigation and decision.
- If dissatisfied with the district's decision, the complainant may appeal in writing to the California State Department of Education (CDE) within 15 days of receiving the district's decision. When appealing to the CDE, the complainant must specify the basis for the appeal of the district's decision and whether the facts are incorrect and/or the law has been misapplied. The appeal shall be accompanied by a copy of the locally filed complaint and a copy of the district's decision.

The Board of Education acknowledges and respects every individual's rights to privacy. In investigating complaints, the confidentiality of the parties involved and the integrity of the process shall be protected. As appropriate for any complaint alleging discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or bullying, the Superintendent or designee may keep the identity of a complainant confidential to the extent that the investigation of the complaint is not obstructed.

The Board prohibits any form of retaliation against any complainant in the complaint process. Such participation shall not in any way affect the status, grades, or work assignments of the complainant.

The Superintendent designates the following compliance officer to receive and investigate all complaints and ensure district compliance with the law:

Assistant Superintendent, Human Resources 1651 16th Street Santa Monica, CA 90404 (310) 450-8338
