What will it look like when they are in class on campus?

*They will likely still join their classes via Zoom for at least a portion of the class period. ### Can a student come on-campus for some of their classes and remain on Distance Learning for others?

No. If a student is joining us for on-campus learning, they need to come for their entire schedule that day. For example: If it is an odd day and they have a first, third, and fifth period, they should be on campus for all three periods. If they do not have a first period, they would only be on campus for third and fifth period.

If a student chooses to return to campus and cannot come to class, will they be marked present if they attend class virtually instead?

Yes. However, we do ask all students to commit to in-person learning or to distance learning.

What happens for lunch?

All students remain on campus and are assigned to a lunch zone based on the building they are in. There will not be any lunch delivery services allowed. Grab and go lunches will be available for students that need it. There will be two lunch sessions.
