

ASB Code of Conduct

Act and know that you are representing the Samohi ASB at all times

Demonstrate respect for the campus, its students, and faculty

Listen to the ideas of others and provide solutions when difficulty arises

Be involved, helpful, and energetic

Encourage those outside of ASB to participate

Practice “active” listening

Be “proactive” instead of “reactive”

Contribute to a supportive environment by not putting others down

Provide opportunities for others to “lead”

Be honest but kind with your thoughts and remarks

Participate in student activities and functions

Uphold the Samohi motto of “Sincerity, Maturity, Honor, and Service”
