PSAT, NOW WHAT?

Congratulations! Your student has just reached an important academic milestone by completing the PSAT/NMSQT®!

If you don't have it yet, you'll have a score soon. And then what?

In this free webinar, one of our admissions experts teaches you how a good PSAT score can help your child win a National Merit Scholarship and explores what the next steps are—including whether your child is on track for the award.

Most importantly, the PSAT is a great indicator of SAT and ACT readiness. Based on different score ranges and target schools, this webinar will help you build a test-prep plan for your child!
