

David Torrence Track and Field Scholarship

This scholarship is given to an exemplary student who has shown dedication to sports while excelling academically. This scholarship was given in David's memory, an Olympian elite athlete, who was fiercely competitive, kind and compassionate. David believed in giving back to the athletes that train hard both in sports and academics.

Instructions:

1. Please include your resume.
2. In a short essay, please answer the following prompt:

Share with the scholarship committee your involvement with track and field and your goals in college (where you might attend and what major)
