I Have a Dream Speech © 1963 Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr. recited on August 28, 1963 during the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. Perhaps the most famous symbol of the Civil Rights Movement, the speech resonated with marches and became a rallying cry, "Never Again," but as King said, "I have a dream" continuously repeating the phrase.

Why Join AVID?

Dedicated and Specially Trained College Tutors

"One thing that has helped me are the tutors because they help me understand what I'm doing wrong and what I need to do to keep on going to solve a problem. They also help because they will do a one-on-one with you on subject you need extra help with. And last but not least, they are just really nice they will help you in any subject, no matter what."
